

Design

To determine the cypher value and whether it moves left or right, transform the letters to integers and shift them in accordance with the cypher value and direction. Then, if the index is larger than 26, mod it, and subtract it from 26 if it is less than 0. Finally, using the array at the top, shift the numbers and transform them back to letters, then output the new text.